

The parties have chosen their candidates. Now it's your turn.

Meet Eliot Cutler Independent for Governor

Deep Maine roots. A problem solver.
Broad experience in business and government.
A strong, independent leader who won't be pulled away from common sense solutions by the extremes of either party.

Eliot Cutler has a plan to get Maine working again. He'll cut the cost of living and doing business in Maine by lowering the cost of energy, healthcare and government, and he'll invest in our competitive advantages. That's the right way to create jobs.

Eliot Cutler knows how to make the tough decisions, and he knows how to bring people together to get things done. He'll unite us around a bold, exciting new vision for our state.

Eliot Cutler. Independent. Just like Maine.

www.cutler2010.com

...Cutler is different — he is actually a serious candidate, with real experience, and a background that demands he be taken seriously.

"Eliot Cutler – Game Changer," Pine Tree Politics, September 5, 2009

...Cutler has that combination of insight, political savvy, and intellectual resilience to address the formidable challenges Maine faces.

Ron Bancroft, Portland Press Herald, June 1, 2010

...Cutler "is in a different league" given his political background... "[he] could have a big impact."

"3 Maine independents make cut for ballot," Associated Press, June 1, 2010

"He's a charismatic, well-respected Independent... a plain-speaking, no-nonsense kind of guy."

"Independent candidate Cutler could be one to watch," Foster's Daily Democrat, June 5, 2010

Cutler has everything going for him – voter anger, a rough economy, partisanship at an all-time high...I see Cutler rising like a force...

Joshua Shea, The Independent, June 4, 2010

Authorized by the candidate and paid for by Cutler 2010
P. O. Box 15277, Portland, ME 04112